

One World

DWN-106

Called by
Richard Muir

BREAKS (Alternative lyrics are in parentheses)

Sides Face Grand Square

Don't want to live in New York City (Don't want to live in a big city)

Don't want to live in Tokyo (With lights and traffic everywhere)

Just want to stay in my own valley man

Allemande left and weave the ring

Swing your lady promenade her

Maybe someday it can be our world

Can you imagine it as one world, one world

Head ladies chain across the ring now

Heads promenade three quarter round

Side pair right and left thru and you turn em

Pass thru and dosado

Swing thru and let the boys run

Chain down the line and Promenade her

Maybe someday it can be our world

Can you imagine it as one world, one world

TAG

I only know that there is one world

Can you imagine it as one world, one world

ALTERNATIVE LYRICS FOR BREAKS

Why do their hearts hurt more than their bellies do

(Why do they have to fight for freedom)

Why do they live in poverty

(Why must they live in poverty)

There's nothing I want from myself

That I don't want for everyone

Let's live in peace and freedom
