

Western Lady

7c-13

Called by
David Cox

OPENER - MIDDLE BREAK

Sides face, grand square

I knew a western lady, she loved the way I walked

She loved the jingle, jangle of my spurs

I used to sit her on my knee and stories I would tell

That's when my true love said to me

Circle left

She said "You're wearing your spurs

Wearing your spurs too high"

Left allemande, swing and promenade

She said "You give me a thrill when I sit on your knee

You're weaving your spurs too high"

FIGURE

Heads lead to the right, veer to the left and ladies hinge

Diamond circulate, flip the diamond, ladies trade

Recycle 'cross and then, veer left once again

Ferris wheel, you move around that ring, dixie grand

You're wearing your spurs, you're wearing your spurs

Left allemande, come back, swing that girl and promenade

She said "You give me a thrill when I sit on your knee

You're weaving your spurs too high"

TAG

Bow to your partner, corners too

Shake your spurs, that's it, you're through
