Cajun Queen

GR-12461

Opener / Middle Break:

Walk Around your corner lady,
See Saw your own.
Join up all your hands, Circle Left a while.
Left Allemande and Weave the ring.
Then she laid her eyes upon me,
Swing your partner around and Promenade.
It was down in New Orleans where I met my Cajun queen.

Figure:

Heads [sides] Promenade half way around.
Same heads Lead Right, Veer to the Left and then,
Bend the Line, dance forward and back.
Right and Left Thru and you will turn her around.
Slide Through, Touch a Quarter, Scoot Back and then,
Swing your Cajun corner and Promenade.
It was down in New Orleans where I met my Cajun queen.
And she rocked this daddy all night long.

Closer:

Four men you'll Promenade inside.
Get back home and Swing your Cajun queen.
Join up all your hands, Circle Left now.
Boudreaux!
Left Allemande and Weave, then you Promenade.
Then she laid her eyes upon me.
It was down in New Orleans where I met my Cajun queen.
And she rocked this daddy all night long.

NOTE: Bodreaux is the Cajun version of "Now!" — that solo whirl done while dancers circle.
