Chicken Truck

Opener/Break/Closer: (Grand Square)

Well it was mornin' when I left Alabama

It must have been around in Mid July (Allemande Left & Weave)

I got behind a chicken truck from Georgia (Swing & Promenade)

And the feathers were a flyin' like snow out of the sky

Figure:

Well now the Heads Square Thru, behind that truck you're stuck

All the way around, Swing Thru just for luck

Now the Boys Run Right & then you Ferris Wheel, (Centers Pass Thru)

Now you Touch 1/4 there, and Scoot Back 'cross that square

And you Swing that corner chick and Promenade from there

Chicken truck out on, Highway 65

Additional Lyrics:

I couldn't get up the speed enough to pass him

And a funny smell was a gettin' close to me (Allemande Left and Weave)

And somethin' keeps on messing up my windshield (Swing and Promenade)

And the farther I go the harder it get's to see

He slowed down and I tried to drive around him

He had a box of Colonel Sander's on his dashboard (Swing and Promenade)

And he was eatin' fried chicken and throwin' his bones on me
