Who, What, Where, When, Why, How

Q-1887

Called By Richard Lane

OPENER

4 ladies promenade one time around
Back home and swing your man around and 'round
Join hands and circle to the left in time
Allemande your corner, weave the line
Who, what, where, when, why, how
Why don't you swing and promenade somehow
If you plan to go I guess I've got a right to know
Who, what, where, when, why, how

FIGURE

Head couples square thru 4 hands you know
All the way and then, right & left thru you go
Swing thru, spin the top for me
Boys move up, right & left thru you see
Slide thru, pass thru, go left allemande
Come back and swing your girl, promenade the land
*Who's been callin' here so often
What's he want, come on start talkin'
Who, what, where, when, why, how

MIDDLE BREAK

Sides face, grand square
I don't like givin' you the third degree
You don't know how much this is hurting me
But if you're makin' plans with someone else
Please take a little time to ask yourself,
Circle Left
Who, what, where, when, why, how
Left allemande, swing and promenade
If you plan to go I guess I've got a right to know
Who, what, where, when, why, how

CLOSER

I've heard a rumor circulating in town
Word's leakin' out, you've been sneakin' around
Left allemande, come back and dosado
Left allemande, weave around you know
Who, what, where, when, why, how
I need some answers honey, right now
If you plan to go I guess I've got a right to know
Who, what, where, when, why, how

*When did you last kiss me, baby?
Why are you so tired lately?
*Who will love you for the long run?
What if you choose the wrong one?
*When has my love been unfaithful?
Why should you be so ungrateful?
