

Jim Kline
207 N. Mason Street
Smithfield, VA 23430
757.279.0747
kalling_kline@msn.com

The Little Cowboy's Lullaby

Bill Staines

Opener/Break/Closer: (Sides Face Grand Square)

Go to bed, little cowboy, I'll sing for you this song
Put your head down, on the pillow
And though you know that it won't take long (Allemande and Weave)
There's magic in the music, Swing and Promenade (Soon before you know)
Well you'll be riding off into dreamland, Where the sleepy little cowboys go

Figure:

Heads Flutterwheel – Sweep  $\frac{1}{4}$
Pass Thru – then Swing Thru
Boys Run Right – Ferris Wheel now
Centers Pass Thru – then Slide Thru
Square Thru – Count 'em Three hands
Swing your corner - Promenade
Well you'll be riding of into dreamland
Where the sleepy little cowboys go

Break: (Sides Face Grand Square)

Where the blue guitar, waltzes with the stars, To a soft and tender tune
There's a big rock candy mountain,
That reaches high up to the moon (Allemande & Weave)
There's a pony that flies, out across the skies,
Swing and Promenade, (You ask me how I know)
Oh I have seen them, Daddy's seen them, Though it was so long ago

Closer: (Sides Face Grand Square)

Now it seems like, it's been a life time to me, Magic and memory fail
Oh but you will find tomorrow
Down a million sunset trails (Allemande & Weave)
So dream on, little cowboy,
Swing and Promenade (Where ever you may be)
And when you're out there ropin' rainbows, Won't you rope one more for me

Tag:

And when you're out there ropin' rainbows
Won't you rope one more for me

Little Cowboy's Lullaby Sing-A-Long

Bill Staines, (1987)

Little Cowboys' Lullaby

Verse 1:

Go to bed, little cowboy, I'll sing for you this song.

Put your head down on the pillow, and though you know that it won't take long,

There's magic in the music. Soon, before you know,

Well, you'll be riding off into Dreamland where the sleepy little cowboys go.

Verse 2:

Where the blue guitar waltzes with a star to a soft and tender tune,

There's a big rock candy mountain that reaches high up to the moon.

There's a pony that flies out across the skies. You ask me how I know.

Oh, I have seen them, Daddy's seen them, though it was so long ago.

Bridge:

Oh, I have seen them, Daddy's seen them, though it was so long ago.

Musical Verse Break:

Verse 3:

Now it seems like it's been a lifetime to me, magic and memory fails.

Ah, but you will find tomorrow down a million sunset trail.

So dream on, ya little cowboy, wherever you may be.

And when you're out there ropin' rainbows, won't you rope one more for me.

Coda:

So dream on, ya little cowboy, wherever you may be.

And when you're out there ropin' rainbows, won't you rope one more for me.

And when you're out there ropin' rainbows, won't you rope one more for me.