OPENER

Circle left

*Seeing is believing and believing is the feeling
That you feel when the loving feelin's gone
Allemande the corner girl, dosado your own
Left allemande and weave the ring
As I lay beside her, thoughts of the moment fill my mind,
Swing the girl and promenade
Little did I know that I was loving her for my last time

FIGURE

Heads promenade halfway
Down the middle and square thru four
Swing thru outside two, boys run right
Ferris wheel, centers square thru 3/4
Swing the corner, promenade
**Everything we've ever been, or anything we'll be again
Packed up her bags and moved along

ALTERNATE LYRICS

*She had everything I need, she knows exactly
How to feed, the hunger that lives inside of me

**She controlled the way I feel
Each day she touched me where I live
It's hard to believe her memory
