

Ding-A-Ling
The Christmas Bell

CD-280

Called by
Don Brown & Jerry Mitchell

OPENER - MIDDLE BREAK - CLOSER

Sides face, grand square

*Gather round and I will tell a story of the Christmas Bell

Who fell and broke his harmony, and he began to

Allemande left and weave for me

Everyone knows Ding-a-Ling

Swing your girl, promenade the ring

He doesn't hear his notes too well

Ding-a-Ling the Christmas Bell

ALTERNATE LYRICS

*When Christmas eve came to the town

A blinding snow was falling down

Ding-a-Ling heard someone say

Old Santa's sure to

Allemande left and weave that way

*It occurred to Ding-a-Ling

To ring as loud as he could ring

And when Old Santa heard the sound

He followed it

Allemande left and weave to town

Everything has turned out well

For Ding-a-Ling the Christmas Bell

FIGURE

Heads (sides) square thru four hands you know

With the corner dosado

Touch 1/4, split circulate

Swing thru two by two, centers trade

Walk & dodge, now boys you fold

Swing Ding-a-Ling, promenade her home

The saddest bell you've ever seen

The Christmas Bell called Ding-a-Ling
