LITTLE BLACK BOOK

OPENER

Circle left. Well my pretty baby, she left me in ____
Said she wasn't comin' home anymore.
The men Star by the right, one time in the middle of the night
To the corner, Allemande Left the corner, Weave around the ring.
Well I fumed and I fussed, and I might-a cried a little
Swing your lady and you promenade the ring
But with a little bit of luck and my little black book
I'll have another 'fore the sun goes down.

FIGURE

The heads [sides] Square Thru, four hands in the middle you do
Run out to the corner, do a Do Sa Do
Swing Thru for me, let the Boy Run Right
You Tag the Line, and now face it in
Just the girls, the girls Load the Boat, while the boys cheer them on
Swing that corner girl, Promenade
And with a little bit of luck and my little black book
I'll have another 'fore the sun goes down.

BREAK, END

Four ladies [boys] Promenade go once around that ring
Come back and you give that man [gal] a swing
Well, back right out and circle, you go rollin' around the ring
To the corner, Allemande left the corner, Weave around the ring
Well I fumed and I fussed, and I might-a cried a little
Swing your lady and you promenade the ring
But with a little bit of luck and my little black book
I'll have another 'fore the sun goes down.

TAG

And with a little bit of luck and my little black book
I'll have another 'fore the sun goes down.
