

Morningtown Ride

A-1007

Called By Jason Dean

OPENER - MIDDLE BREAK - CLOSER

Sides face grand square

*Train whistle blowing, makes a sleepy noise

Underneath the blankets, and all the girls and boys

Four ladies promenade, rockin', rollin', ridin'

Swing your lady round and promenade

All bound for Morningtown, many miles away

FIGURE

Heads lead to the right, veer to the left, fan the top

Boys walk up, wheel and deal

Reverse the flutter wheel and go bring the girl right back you know

Ladies lead dixie style and make a wave

Boys circulate one time, do a left swing thru

Girls run to the left and promenade

TAG

We're all bound for Morningtown, many miles away

ALTERNATE LYRICS

*Driver at the engine, fireman rings the bell

Sandman sways the lantern, to show that all is well

*Somewhere there is sunshine, somewhere there is day

Somewhere there is Morningtown, many miles away
