

Feeling Good Again

JP-604

Caller Shane Greer

Opener

Side Face Grand Square:

Standing there on main street across from Mr. Blues in my faded leather jacket and weathered brogan shoes. A chill north wind was blowing but the spring was coming on. I wondered to myself.

I strolled across old main street, walked down a flight of stairs, stepped into the hall and saw all my friends were there. A neon sign was flashing, welcome come on in. Feels so good, feeling good again.

Break

Side Face Grand Square:

My favorite band was playing an Otis Redding song.

When they sang the chorus, everybody sang along.

Dan and Margarita were swaying side by side.

I wished I had some money with which to buy a round.

I wished I'd cashed my paycheck before I came to town.

I reached into my pocket and found 3 twenties and a ten.

Feels so good, feeling good again.

Closer

Side Face Grand Square:

There was old man Perkins sitting on a stool, watching Butch and Jimmy John talking loud and playing pool. The boys from Silver City were standing by the fire.

I wanted you to see them all. I wished that you were there.

I looked across the room and saw you standing on the stairs.

and when I caught your eyes I saw you break into a grin.

Feels so good, feeling good again.
